1. On 12 September, a large Chinese junk arrived at Taedasado (Tashito) (124-26, 39-47) in Yongchon (Ryusen) (龍川) County with a cargo of khaki cloth. Twelve truckloads of this cloth were sent to Sinuiju (Shingishu) (124-24, 40-06). A [ ] reported that between 2 April and 17 June the Sinuiju Clothing and Blanket Factory produced 200,000 military uniforms and 300,000 hats for the Chinese Communist troops.)
2. On 24 August, a large Chinese junk of approximately 50 tons and a crew of sixteen arrived at Yongampo (Ryugampo) (124-22, 39-56) in Yongchon County. Two straw bags of rice, 500 pieces of bean cake and 100 straw bags of kaoliang, potatoes, bamboo shoots and other materials were unloaded and sent by truck to the Consumers' Association of Yongampo. Six Korean Volunteer Army soldiers, two of whom were officers, also arrived in Yongampo on this boat. These soldiers are believed to have been sent (? by the Korean Volunteer Army in Manchuria?) to maintain liaison with the Korean and Soviet officials in Yongampo. On 30 August, 300 cans of carbide, 150 cans of washing soda, and various sea foods from the Consumers' Association of Yongampo were loaded on the boat. On 3 September, the boat left Yongampo (? with the six Korean Volunteer Army soldiers?).
